LIQUIDATORS' NOTICE

With reference to the actual analysis' activities concerning the claims in insolvency proceeding filed to Banca Popolare di Vicenza S.p.A. subject to Compulsory Administrative Liquidation ("BPVI in LCA"), considering the large number of identical requests for information received, it is deemed useful to clarify that:

1. the claims in insolvency proceeding filed in accordance to the process already represented under Liquidators' Notice of February 22, 2018 (for further details please refer to it) will be considered "late", pursuant to current regulations (Article 89 of the Consolidated Law on Banking and Credit Laws), only if they are filed after the deposit, by the Liquidators, of the "Statement of liabilities" at the Registry of the Court of Vicenza;
2. the claims in insolvency proceeding could be filed even without legal assistance and shall be accompanied by documents proving the right for which it is asked for acknowledgement;
3. the claims in insolvency proceeding shall be sent by certified e-mail address ("PEC") to lcabancapopolaredivicenza@pecliquidazioni.it or by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, addressed to Banca Popolare di Vicenza S.p.A. in Liquidazione Coatta Amministrativa – Segreteria Generale, VIA BTG. FRAMARIN 18, 36100 VICENZA, on the understanding that, in any case, a certified e-mail address ("PEC") must be provided in the application, in order to be used in all further communication of the Liquidation; in absence of such PEC address indication, any further notice of the Liquidators will be made by filing at the Registry of the Court of Vicenza, pursuant to Article 86, paragraph 3, of the Consolidated Law on Banking and Credit Laws;
4. what has been detailed above also applies to claims in insolvency proceeding related to the "subordinated securities" mentioned in the Liquidators' Notice of January 26, 2018;
5. any information and/or request concerning categories of reimbursement or indemnity - connected with "shares" or "subordinated securities" issued by the former Banca Popolare di Vicenza - not related to the Liquidators' evaluation activities of the "Statement of liabilities" thereof, but to other provisions of law or initiatives managed by different Institutions/Authorities, shall be addressed to the competent owner different from BPVI in LCA, considering that the Liquidators are not entitled to provide any indication in this regard.
